

CURRICULUM VITAE
Apical Puntasen
E-Mail: apichaipun@hotmail.com

Personal Data

Date of Birth : Sept. 25, 1942      Place of Birth: Nakhonrajasima Thailand

Academic Training

B.A. (Econ.)	Faculty of Economics, Thammasat University	1962
M.A. (Econ.)	Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee	1967
Ph.D. (Econ.)	Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee	1973

Fields of Specialization

Quantitative Economics, Development Economics, Rural Development, Human Resources, Economics of Natural Resources and Environment, Political Economy, Buddhist Economics and Sufficiency Economy.

Visiting Fellowship

Visiting Professor, Graduate School for International Development and Cooperation, Hiroshima University, Japan, 1994-1995.

Visiting Professor, Centre for East and South-East Asia Studies, Lund University, Sweden, April-July 1999.

Professional Experience

1996	Professor, Faculty of Economics, Thammasat University.
1999	Director : Ph.D. Programme in Integrated Sciences, Thammasat University.
2001	Eminent Professor of Buddhist Economics, Thammasat University
2003	Dean of the Faculty of Management Science, Ubon Rajathanee University.

Related Publications

"Economic Ethics, Environment and Buddhist Economics". M. Kamonpanich and P. Witoonpanich ed., 1 International Congress on Ideal Graduates Integrated to 4 National Congress on Thai Ideal Graduates. Thai Ideal Graduates Association, Bangkok, November 14-17, 2000.

Buddhist Economics : Evolution, Theories and Its Application to Various Economics Subjects. Bangkok : Amarin Publishing Companies, 2001, 800 pages,(in Thai).

Co-author with Sorawich Premchuen and Pichet Keartdejpanya, A Consequential Analysis of Small and Medium Scale Industries that Manage Their Business Activities Through the King's Concept of Sufficiency Economy, research report presented to Thailand Development Fund, May 15, 2002.

With Dr. Titiporn Puntasen, "The King's Sufficiency Economy and the Analysis of Meaning by Economists", department of Technical and Economic Cooperation, Minister of Foreign Affairs, (2004).

With a research team, "The Application of the King's Concept of Sufficiency Economy to Timor Leste", presented to The Department of Technical and Economic Cooperation, Ministry of Foreign Affairs (2005).

A member of a research team to prepare the background paper for "Thailand Human Development Report 2007 : Sufficiency and Human Development" edited by Chris Becker in Chapter two "Thinking out the Sufficiency Economy" by UNDP, Keen Publishing (Thailand), Co.Ltd. (2007)

May 22, 2007